The purpose of my instruction is that all believers would be filled with love that comes from a pure heart, a clear conscience, and genuine faith. 1 Timothy 1:5 (NLT)

4 Outline

- Section I: Introduction
 - ◆ A definition of money
 - ◆ The scope of our study
 - ◆ 6 characteristics of money
 - ◆ Our attitude about money matters to God
- Section II: Review of the inductive process
- Section III: 11 parables that Jesus taught about money
- Section IV: 30 other Biblical teachings about money

5 Part I. Money-a definition

- Webster Dictionary: "Anything customarily used as a medium of exchange and measure of value, as sheep, wampum, gold dust, etc"
- "A means of payment" - - >

6 The scope of our study

- According to several sources, there are over 2000 verses in the Bible about money. Compare this to:
 - ◆ 500 verses on prayer
 - ◆ Less than 500 verses on faith
 - ◆ 600 verses on heaven and hell
- Furthermore, observe that
 - ◆ Nearly half of Jesus' parables are related to money
 - ◆ 15% of all of Jesus teachings are about money
- Therefore, in one week, we cannot possibly do an exhaustive study of Biblical teaching about money
 - Instead, each student will personally engage in a brief inductive study of 41 Scriptural texts to develop a sense of God's mind and heart regarding money
 - The student will apply this framework as we then systematically explore 10 Biblical principles regarding money and wealth

7 6 characteristics of money from a Biblical perspective8 1. Money is an efficient medium of exchange and is valuable for the common support of life

- A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes life merry, but money is the answer

for everything Ecclesiastes 10:19>

9 2. Money is God's reward for our labor

- All hard work brings a profit, but mere talk leads only to poverty. Proverbs 14:23

- Moreover, when God gives any man wealth and possessions, and enables him to enjoy them, to accept his lot and be happy in his work--this is a gift of God.

Ecclesiastes 5:19

- He who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with his own hands, that he may have something to share with those in need. Ephesians 4:28

- Stay in that house, eating and drinking whatever they give you, for the worker deserves his wages. Luke 10:7a

- The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching. For the Scripture says, "Do not muzzle the ox while it is treading out the grain," and "The worker deserves his wages." 1 Timothy 5:17-18>

10 3. Money is a mechanism for revealing our character and devotion to God

- For I know your eagerness to help, and I have been boasting about it to the Macedonians, telling them that since last year you in Achaia were ready to give; and your enthusiasm has stirred most of them to action. But I am sending the brothers in order that our boasting about you in this matter should not prove hollow, but that you may be ready, as I said you would be... So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to visit you in advance and finish the arrangements for the generous gift you had promised. Then it will be ready as a generous gift, not as one grudgingly given. 2 Corinthians 9:2,3,5-->

11 4. Money is a powerful tool for --

- Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. 1 Timothy 6:18

- But just as you excel in everything-- in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in your love for us--see that you also excel in this grace of giving 2 Corinthians 8:7-->

12 For example, money is useful in supporting the work of the Kingdom

- Receive the atonement money from the Israelites and use it for the service of the Tent of Meeting. It will be a memorial and for the Israelites before the LORD, making atonement for your lives. Exodus 30:16

- "I give you all the finest olive oil and all the finest new wine and grain they give the LORD as the firstfruits of their harvest. Numbers 18:12

- If others have this right of support from you, shouldn't we have it all the more? But we did not use this right. On the contrary, we put up with anything rather than hinder the gospel of Christ. Don't you know that those who work in the temple get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in what is offered on the altar? In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the gospel should receive their living from the gospel. 1 Corinthians 9:12-14 >

13 5. Money is a tremendous tool for --

- What good will it be for a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul? Matthew 16:26

- You have hoarded wealth in the last days. Look! The wages you failed to pay the workmen who mowed your fields are crying out against you. The cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord Almighty. James 5:3b-4>

14 For example, the lure of money may have been a factor in Judas' betrayal of Jesus

- and the chief priests and the teachers of the law were looking for some way to get rid of Jesus, for they were afraid of the people. Then Satan entered Judas, called Iscariot, one of the Twelve. And Judas went to the chief priests and the officers of the temple guard and discussed with them how he might betray Jesus. They were delighted and agreed to give him money. He consented, and watched for an opportunity to hand Jesus over to them when no crowd was present. Luke 22:2-6>

15 6. Money, rather than God, can become the object of our love, passions, pride and trust causing much harm to ourselves and others

- For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs. 1 Timothy 6:10 >

16 Our heart's attitude towards money is important to God

- What is your heart's attitude towards money?

- What questions do you have that you hope to have answered in this course?

17 The importance of a Godly perspective

- Our attitude about money will affect everything in our life--even our relationship with God. Therefore, it is critically important that we follow Biblical principles regarding money and seek God's wisdom in applying them to our life. >

18 The believer should seek Godly wisdom

- I have hidden your word in my heart that I might not sin against you. Psalm 119:11

- Do not let this Book of the Law depart from your mouth; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful. Joshua 1:8

- He sought God during the days of Zechariah, who instructed him in the fear of God. As long as he sought the LORD, God gave him success. 2 Chron 26:5

- All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work. 2 Tim 3:16-17 more>

19 The believer should seek Godly wisdom

- Long life is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor. Her ways are pleasant ways, and all her paths are peace. Proverbs 3:16-17

- I love those who love me, and those who seek me find me. With me are riches and honor, enduring wealth and prosperity. Proverbs 8:17-18

- Wisdom is a shelter as money is a shelter, but the advantage of knowledge is this: that wisdom preserves the life of its possessor. Ecclesiastes 7:12

- The wealth of the wise is their crown, but the folly of fools yields folly. Proverbs 14:24

- "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. Proverbs 9:10

20 A good question to ask when doing a study

- Here is question we all should be constantly asking as we take this class: "Is our interpretation of Scripture the consistent with the nature of God"?

- Truth never contradicts the nature of God, because He is the source of all truth; God is truth (RC Sproul, "The Truth Project") >

21 Part II. The inductive method of Bible study

- A prayerful and thoughtful approach to Bible study is an indispensable to the process

- All Bible study begins with and depends on the Holy Spirit for illumination into his Word

- The inductive method of study will be useful for our purpose in this class

22 II. The inductive Bible study method- simplified

- Observation: What does the passage say?

- Interpretation: The process of discovering what the passage means

- Application: How is the passage intended to impact our lives?

- Categorization: Assigning the passage one or more categories for future organization into a body of knowledge

23 Observation of the text

- Select a text where money might be a topic that is treated in some fashion

- Read the text in the light of the context

- Make a list of observations you believe the author seems to be making about money

- If there is no teaching about money, make a note and move to the next text Intervarsity.org

24 Interpretation of the observations

- For each observation, answer the question "What is the message or point the author is making about money?"

- Is the message consistent with the character of God?

- Is the intent to be an example, information, or instructive for Christian living or theology truth?

- How does it relate to other similar passages?

25 Application of the interpretation

- Make a list of some changes to your life you will consider making as a result of the principles you have discovered
- List questions, problems, or topics for further study

26 Categorization of the application

- We will decide on one or more categories for each application
- Our reason for doing this is to be able to turn a somewhat random survey of a number of Scriptures into a useful body of knowledge
- This body of knowledge can be used for developing the framework of a Biblical world view of money and wealth
- It will provide a format to systematically teach others about this subject

27 Consistency check

- Are the principles consistent with what you know about God, his character, and his plan for our lives?
- Are there examples in Scripture that support or contradict your hypotheses?
- Are the principles consistent with each other?

28 Section III. Eleven parables of Jesus regarding money and wealth

29 Class assignment

- Break into four teams (A, B, C, D), choose a name, and elect a spokesman
- Follow the inductive process for a number of Scriptures that are listed in your team's handout
- Be prepared to share your results for each text with the class:
 - ◆Observations
 - ◆Interpretations
 - ◆Category
 - ◆Principles

30 Quiz

- After each of the next 41 lessons, create one or more quizzes that deal with the lesson's teaching
- It is recommended that you provide 4 or 5 choices or statements for each quiz
- After allowing a minute or two for the students to complete the quiz, go over the answers. For false statements, ask the class what change could be made to make the statement true
- If you prefer, class discussions or essays may also be used. This author has provided some of these two types at various points throughout the next 41 lessons

31 Notes to the instructor

- Following are 41 lessons that examine various passages in Scripture concerning money. The purpose is to engage the student in developing a sense of God's heart towards money. In later modules, this somewhat random information will be systemized into a body of knowledge

- It is recommended that the class be divided into 4 teams: a,b,c and d. Each team will study approximately 10 passages using the inductive method and completing the worksheet for that passage

- After an appropriate period of time, call the teams back together. Beginning with the first parable, present the material until you see the slide that allows you to record the results of the team's work

- The team assigned to the passage will share with the class the results of their study. The instructor can record the answers in real time on the summary slide. The instructor can then continue presenting his teaching for each lesson.

32 1. The rich young ruler

33 1. The rich young ruler

- Now a man came up to Jesus and asked, "Teacher, what good thing must I do to get eternal life?" "Why do you ask me about what is good?" Jesus replied. "There is only One who is good. If you want to enter life, obey the commandments." "Which ones?" the man inquired. Jesus replied, "'Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honor your father and mother,' and 'love your neighbor as yourself.'" "All these I have kept," the young man said. "What do I still lack?" Jesus answered, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me."

34 Matthew 19:16-26 (cont'd)

- When the young man heard this, he went away sad, because he had great wealth. Then Jesus said to his disciples, "I tell you the truth, it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astonished and asked, "Who then can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." >

36 The rich young ruler-the deceitfulness of riches

- His admirable qualities
 - ◆ Possessed considerable wealth
 - ◆ Had position of authority and respect
- He was sincere, respectful and courteous to Jesus
 - ◆ Believed Jesus to be an authority in spiritual things
 - ◆ Concerned about what was really important in life
- His deficiencies
 - ◆ He had an inflated opinion of his own righteousness
 - ◆ He loved his earthly life more than he loved eternal life
 - ◆ He was proud, covetous, spiritually blind, and self-deceived --> Up

37 The rich young ruler

- Jesus answered, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me." When the young man heard this, he went away sad, because he had great wealth.
 - ◆ Jesus implies that "to be good" really means "to be perfect". Perfection is the standard we must achieve to dwell in God's presence
 - ◆ Jesus reveals that the most important thing in the young man's life were his possessions, not his relationship with God
 - ◆ Jesus elicits the emotion that reveals his heart--sadness of realizing he must love God more than the good life -->

38 The rich young ruler

- There are several lessons in this passage
- Let's talk about the ones that have to do with money and wealth -->

39 The rich young ruler

- A man's attachment to his wealth may be an insurmountable obstacle to knowing God.
- "The young man went away sad" (vs 22). It appears that he chose the false security that his worldly wealth could give him (security, power, friends, comfort, pleasure, status, etc) instead of the true riches of following Christ . This is the sin of covetousness.-->

40 The rich young ruler

- Jesus implies that those who give up their resources for God's kingdom will see a tremendous return on their investment both now and in eternity (Matthew 19:28-29, Mark 10:29- 30, Luke 18:29-30)
 - ◆ "I tell you the truth," Jesus replied, "no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for me and the gospel will fail to receive a hundred times as much in this present age (homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields—and with them, persecutions) and in the age to come, eternal life. Mark 10:29- 30(NIV)-->

41 Essay42 The rich young ruler

- Loving and trusting in this world's goods can be an insurmountable obstacle to knowing and pleasing God

- God may ask to use the assets he has entrusted to us to accomplish his purposes

- Our happiness should not depend on how many possessions we have, but rather we should find our joy in knowing the Lord and using what we have to help build his kingdom

- Our money cannot save us. Only God can save us through the sacrifice of His Son, Jesus Christ

- God will richly reward us for the sacrifices we make to follow Christ >

43 The rich young ruler

- Why is it hard for a rich person to gain eternal life?

- ◆ They have no need of anything, including God

- ◆ They are so busy with earthly things they do not prepare for their future

- ◆ They think their money can purchase anything, including favor with God

- ◆ Their love for their money leads them into a seductive life of evil pleasures which war against their souls

- ◆ If they are generous, they may think their good deeds will outweigh their bad deeds and not see their sin -->

44 2. The poor widow's donation45 Inductive study results

- Observations

- Category

- Principles

46 The poor widow – sacrificial giving

- The amount we give is not important

- God is looking for those willing to lovingly sacrifice some benefit they could have gained for themselves but instead apply it for the sake of his kingdom

- The greater the sacrifice, the more commendable the gift

- Some sacrificial gifts may bless others immediately and continue to bless others long after we are gone

- Other sacrificial gifts may not begin blessing others until long after we are gone -->

47 Essay

- Why was the widow's action commended by Jesus?
- In what ways was her gift greater than anyone else's?
- How does this story touch your heart?
- What is the application of the poor widow to your life? -->

48 3. The farmer and the seed sown among thorns49 Parable of the farmer and the seed sown among thorns

■ While a large crowd was gathering and people were coming to Jesus from town after town, he told this parable: "A farmer went out to sow his seed. As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path; it was trampled on, and the birds of the air ate it up. Some fell on rock, and when it came up, the plants withered because they had no moisture. Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up with it and choked the plants. Still other seed fell on good soil. It came up and yielded a crop, a hundred times more than was sown." When he said this, he called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."-->

50 Parable of the farmer and the seed sown among thorns (cont'd)

■ His disciples asked him what this parable meant. He said, "The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of God has been given to you, but to others I speak in parables, so that, 'though seeing, they may not see; though hearing, they may not understand.' "This is the meaning of the parable: The seed is the word of God. Those along the path are the ones who hear, and then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. Those on the rock are the ones who receive the word with joy when they hear it, but they have no root. They believe for a while, but in the time of testing they fall away. The seed that fell among thorns stands for those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by life's worries, riches and pleasures, and they do not mature. But the seed on good soil stands for those with a noble and good heart, who hear the word, retain it, and by persevering produce a crop. Luke 8:4-15

52 The farmer and the seed sown among thorns - the lure of riches can choke Christian fruitfulness

- The love of riches, and the pleasures it can buy, can choke out one's sensitivity towards his own spiritual need

- Even Christians can be distracted by the pursuit of wealth and therefore never reach maturity or usefulness for the kingdom -->

53 Class assignment

- Verse 14: The seed that fell among thorns stands for those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by life's worries, riches and pleasures, and they do not mature. Applying the message of verse 14, what potential harm can riches have on our spiritual lives?

- Worshipping money rather than God
- Proud, greedy, selfish
- Wander away from our faith
- Trusting money rather than God for our security >

54 Previous class answers

- Forget poor because we want more and more money
- May become proud
- May become self-sufficient and forget to ask God for our needs
- May not have time for important ministries
- May be able to afford our own protection and forget that God is our real protector
- May not depend upon God
- May live a life of ease and pursuit of pleasure
- May become the preoccupation of our heart and therefore we lose our fellowship with God

55 4. Story of the rich fool

56 Story of the rich fool

- Then he said to them, "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions." And he told them this parable: "The ground of a certain rich man produced a good crop. He thought to himself, 'What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.' "Then he said, 'This is what I'll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I'll say to myself, "You have plenty of good things laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry."' "But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?' 58 Story of the rich fool - the danger of misplaced priorities

- The rich man foolishly trusted his wealth for his future security rather than depending on God to be his provider and protector

- True riches do not depend on how much we have of this world's goods

- God did not condemn the man for being wealthy, but for not being generous towards the One who gave him his wealth

- His folly was planning to live the rest of his life pursuing selfish pleasures rather than using his wealth for the kingdom

- God wants us to develop our relationship with him above all else-->

60 5. Money and possessions: (Luke 12:22-34)

61 Money and possessions: (Luke 12:22-34)

- Then Jesus said to his disciples: "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; or about your body, what you will wear. Life is more than food, and the body more than clothes. Consider the ravens: They do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn; yet God feeds them. And how much more valuable you are than birds! Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life? Since you cannot do this very little thing, why do you worry about the rest? "Consider how the lilies grow. They do not labor or spin. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendor was dressed like one of these. -->

- If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today, and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith! And do not set your heart on what you will eat or drink; do not worry about it. For the pagan world runs after all such things, and your Father knows that you need them. But seek his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well. "Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father has been pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out, a treasure in heaven that will not be exhausted, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. - Rather than worry about our needs, we should trust God to provide our needs from day to day (vs 31)

- God promises that if we use our wealth to benefit the poor we will accumulate treasure in heaven (vs 33)

- "There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day. At his gate was laid a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores and longing to eat what fell from the rich man's table. Even the dogs came and licked his sores. "The time came when the beggar died and the angels carried him to Abraham's side. The rich man also died and was buried. In hell, where he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far away, with Lazarus by his side. So he called to him, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this fire.'" "But Abraham replied, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, while Lazarus received bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in agony. -->

80 Build your treasure in heaven

- We should not make it a priority in our life to accumulate wealth. If God does bless us financially, we are to recognize that He owns it and we are mere stewards of his property. Therefore, our wealth belongs to Him and should be used as God leads and directs us.

- Heavenly treasure is a far safer investment than earthly treasure. It is completely secure, and it will have eternal value which can never be lost.

- Enduring suffering for Jesus' sake
- By participating in the spreading of the gospel
- Doing good deeds
- Sacrificing for the sake of the kingdom of God
- Building his Kingdom through our tithes, offerings
- Seeking after righteousness
- By being a good steward of our time, talent, and/or money

■ "The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light. I tell you, use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings. "Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own? "No servant can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money." Luke 16:8-13-->

- Chasing after money is a form of adultery
- Loving money leads one to evil deeds and misplaced priorities and therefore displeases God
- Double-mindedness is despised by God
- Worldliness disrespects the holiness of God
- There is only one God; to serve two god’s (money and God) is to believe in multiple gods

- Ultimately it will come down to a choice between the two; choosing to serve money rather than God will lead us to forget and forsake Him -->

93 Why is it impossible to serve both God and money?

- Serving money leads us to do evil
- Loving money distracts our attention away from God and his kingdom
- The love of money may destroy our faith
- One leads to problems and failures; the other leads to success
- Serving money may cause us to trust it rather than God
- Money can't save us
- God is a jealous God
- To serve money is to serve a created being rather than the creator
- Money is temporal; God is eternal
- Money cannot love us back

94 Why is it impossible to serve God and money?

- We have only one heart to give
- Money is connected with worldly things
- Serving money is idolatry
- Money can make us proud
- Money can breed disunity among believers
- It is disobedient to the command
- Money cannot give us peace
- It can lead to spiritual blindness

Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for that is how their fathers treated the false prophets. "But I tell you who hear me: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. If someone strikes you on one cheek, turn to him the other also. If someone takes your cloak, do not stop him from taking your tunic. Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you. Luke 6:24-31-->

104 The parable of the talents-wise stewardship

- God expects us to invest our resources wisely, whether we have little or much
- It is not how much we have that is important, but rather what we do with what we have
 - If we hoard what we have, God considers it a form of unfaithfulness. We should strive for at least some return on our resources for good, or more specifically, for the kingdom, no matter how modest. This applies to our time, talent, and money
 - This lesson of investing the resources entrusted to us to make a profit, or increase, has material and spiritual applications. Christians are to multiply their lives in the lives of others (evangelism and discipleship) and contribute to the growth of the kingdom with their resources
 - If we are faithful with worldly goods, God may entrust us with spiritual treasure-->

Naked a man comes from his mother's womb, and as he comes, so he departs. He takes nothing from his labor that he can carry in his hand. Ecclesiastes 5:13-15

- There is another serious problem I have seen under the sun. Hoarding riches harms the saver. Money is put into risky investments that turn sour, and everything is lost. In the end, there is nothing left to pass on to one's children. We all come to the end of our lives as naked and empty-handed as on the day we were born. We can't take our riches with us. Ecclesiastes 5:13 -15 (NLT) 13->

203 The goal of becoming rich (cont'd)

- People who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs. 1 Timothy 6:9-10-->

205 The goal of becoming rich

- 1
- The Bible does not encourage us to set a goal of becoming rich in this life
 - It does encourage us to practice virtues and disciplines that can lead to prosperity
 - But as we saw from our scriptural passages, the love of wealth can lead to many problems
 - We will examine the concept of wealth and what to do if we become wealthy in a later module

206 23. Money as the object of our affections

- Turn my heart toward your statutes and not toward selfish gain. Turn my eyes away from worthless things; preserve my life according to your word. Psalm 119:36-37 -->

- The wealth of the rich is their fortified city; they imagine it an unscalable wall. Proverbs 18:11-->

210 Trusting in God vs money (cont'd)

- Then Jesus said to his disciples: "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat; or about your body, what you will wear. Life is more than food, and the body more than clothes. Consider the ravens: They do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn; yet God feeds them. And how much more valuable you are than birds! Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life? Since you cannot do this very little thing, why do you worry about the rest? "Consider how the lilies grow. They do not labor or spin. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendor was dressed like one of these. If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today, and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith! -->

- And do not set your heart on what you will eat or drink; do not worry about it. For the pagan world runs after all such things, and your Father knows that you need them. But seek his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well. "Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father has been pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide purses for yourselves that will not wear out, a treasure in heaven that will not be exhausted, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Luke 12:22-34 -->

213 Trusting God vs money

- Money is an undependable anchor for our lives; if we depend upon it for our safety or security, we will be disappointed

- We are to depend upon God to supply our needs, to protect us, and to make our lives full

- We are to set our hearts on the things of God, living a life that pleases him, and the building of his kingdom

2 Lessons from Scripture

214 25. Our attitude towards our money

- Be careful that you do not forget the LORD your God, failing to observe his commands, his laws and his decrees that I am giving you this day. Otherwise, when you eat and are satisfied, when you build fine houses and settle down, and when your herds and flocks grow large and your silver and gold increase and all you have is multiplied, then your heart will become proud and you will forget the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.-->

215 Our attitude towards our money (cont'd)

- He led you through the vast and dreadful desert, that thirsty and waterless land, with its venomous snakes and scorpions. He brought you water out of hard rock. He gave you manna to eat in the desert, something your fathers had never known, to humble and to test you so that in the end it might go well with you. You may say to yourself, "My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me." But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms his covenant, which he swore to your forefathers, as it is today. If you ever forget the LORD your God and follow other gods and worship and bow down to them, I testify against you today that you will surely be destroyed. Like the nations the LORD destroyed before you, so you will be destroyed for not obeying the LORD your God. Deuteronomy 8:11-20 -- >

217 26. The relationship between suffering as a Christian and riches

- By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short time. He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward. Hebrews 11:24-26-->

219 To suffer for Christ is better than being rich

- Recognize that a passion for pleasure, power, and riches can obscure righteous choices

- It is better to suffer for Christ than to enjoy the pleasures of sin

- The embarrassment of being a Christian is better than the glory of being rich

- As we work for earthly success, stay focused on our true priority which is the pursuit of God and His kingdom

- Realize that our reward in heaven is far more valuable than all the treasures on earth -->

220 27. The relationship between morality and wealth

- Better the little that the righteous have than the wealth of many wicked; Psalm 37:16

228 Individual assignment

- Make general statements that describe God's desire for our finances which you learned from our survey of several dozen scriptural passages.

- You may use your notes.

229 Putting our knowledge to work

- This brief survey has not been exhaustive, but was designed to give you a representative glimpse into the heart of God regarding financial principles

- The exercise was useful because for several of the 41 passages we examined, you had a chance to think independently about them

- Let's take the next step in the process

- We will now develop a comprehensive and organized framework for our knowledge, making it more useful for ourselves and teaching others.

- At the end of the week the results of our work will help us make Scripturally sound decisions about money and cultivate a Godly attitude towards wealth -->
